DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Smith (US 3,816,942).

Claims 4-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Conlee (US 3,034,226). Conlee is considered to disclose the claimed invention comprising:

a body 81;

a top cover 7' covering the body, the top cover including:

a groove 104 which runs along a width of the top cover wherein the groove directs fluid on the top cover toward an exterior of the laundry dryer;

at least one hole 93 disposed in the groove;

a control panel 40' including a hook 107 disposed at a surface of the control panel opposite the top cover wherein the hook is configured for insertion into the at least one hole; and a fire wall 103 disposed below the top cover; wherein the firewall has a curvature such that if a fluid leaks through the hole onto the firewall. the fluid is directed toward an outside of the body. Conlee is also considered to disclose the claimed top cover curvature as shown in figures 2, 7, and 8.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-3 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-15 of copending Application No. 11/036,380. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use a claim recitation "fire wall" in place of the copending recitation "decoration panel" since both perform substantially the same function in substantially the same way using substantially the same means.

Claims 4-5 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-31 of copending Application No. 10/920,292. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use a claim recitation "fire wall" in place of the copending recitation "drain system" since both perform substantially the same function in substantially the same way using substantially the same means.

These are provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejections because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
